

Austin Duathletes 2010 Summer Pub Run Series

May Pub Run!

Thursday, May 20th

6:30 PM

Jack and Adam's Bikes (at Lamar and Barton Springs)

Come join the Austin Duathletes and dozens of other Austin runners in the Original Austin Pub Run! There are many imitators, but the AD's is the original Austin institution. You can't call yourself a runner in Austin and never go on an AD pub run! If you haven't been on one of our famous Red Dress Runs, then you've surely seen one or heard about them.

The first pub run of the summer is Thursday, May 20th. Though there isn't an official theme, "redneck" is the dress of choice for this run, with cutoffs and trucker hats being completely acceptable. The total mileage is about 5 miles, but some people drive, ride, or cab the course, from stop to stop.

Starting from Jack and Adam's Bikes, at Lamar and Barton Springs, there will be 4 to 5 stops in and around downtown Austin, including Molotov, Ghost Room, and Lucky Lounge, with FREE BEER at one of our sponsors.

With two others later in the summer to be announced, the first 2010 Summer Pub Run on May 20th is sure to be a hit, like the 42 pub runs that came before it!

Tentative dates for next pub runs: Thursday, July 1st and Friday, August 27th
